Dear Families,

Welcome back after the Easter break. The Easter Hat Parade and 50th Anniversary of Broken Hill Primary School were wonderful celebrations, with which to end Term 1. We hope the Easter Bilby spoilt you all rotten!! In the Preschool program, we are exploring children’s understandings of Anzac Day and are sharing beautiful stories about how struggles of generations before have helped create our amazing country now. Before long it will be Mother’s Day (stay tuned for exciting plans around celebrating our mums in the coming weeks). We will be making ANZAC biscuits on Wednesday this week. See the link for the recipe to use at home if you wish. http://www.taste.com.au/recipes/32957/anzac+biscuits

May is National Reading Month. Preschool will be reading the ‘Brother Quibble”, By Aaron Blabey on National simultaneous storytime (NSS) on Wednesday, 27th May at 11.00am. Families are welcome to come in and join in our shared reading. See link to order your copy. https://www.alia.org.au/nss

Note: Mother’s Day - Sunday 10th May

Have a great week! Love Lyndal and Andrea
